THROWN FROM A CART SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO A SPOT-

Narrow Escape of a Colored Man

9,-(Special.)-Mr. John F. Alsop, one of was perfously burt one day this week by being thrown from his road cart. He was going through a field, and while he was attempting to cross a ravine the vehicle was upset, with the above result. The accident was seen by some laborers in a near-by field, who went to Mr. Alsop's assistance and carried him home. Medical aid was promptly obtained, and his sofferings alleviated as much as possible. Mr. Alsop is a very large man, and it is very hard to determine exactly the nature of his injuries, but the doctors hope to have him about soon.

Cuba Coleman, a colored man, had a parrow escape from death in Spotsylvania yesterday. He was driving a carriage yesterday. He was driving a carriage along a narrow road, and reached forward to adjust some part of the harness, when he lost his balance and pitched out of the vehicle, his feet becoming fastened under the seat. The horses took fright, and ran some miles with his head dragging the ground. When the team was stopped the man was thought to be dead, but revived some hours after, and is now supposed to be in a fair way of recovery. of recovery. OFFICERS ELECTED.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The stockholders of the Rappahannock Electritc-Laght and Power Company held a meeting here yesterday and elected the following officers: H. Browning, president; J. B. Ficklen, vice-president and general manager; A. B. Bottis, secretary and treasurer. Directors—H. Browning, A. B. Botts, J. B. Ficklen, Mrs. Letiha. Souther, and Mrs. C. D. Willis, The city cancelled its contract with this company for lighting the streets on the 1st of the present month, and, as it is imperatively necessary that some provision be made to supply proper light, it is currently rumored that the reorganization effected here to-day is for the purpose of making another contract with the city authorities that will be much more satisfactory to all parties concerned than was the one just cancelled. was the one just cancelled.

DEATH OF A CONFEDERATE.

DEATH OF A CONFEDERATE.

Mr. Charles F. Shepberd died here this afternoon, after a lingering illiness, of diabetes. Mr. Shepherd was a gallant exconfederate soldier. He was a member of the Thirtieth Virginia Regiment.

Miss Florence Brooks, *nose mysterious disappearance from this city some months ago caused such a sensation, returned here this afternoon on a brief visit to her relatives. She says she has been in New York and Washington since her departure, and will return to the latter place after a short stay here.

A RUNAWAY TRAIN.

Sirgular and Disastrous, But Bloodless Accident.

HINTON, W. VA., November 9. (Spechal)—The singular and disastrous, though bloodless, accident at Dimmock, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, forty miles west of here, is all the talk along the line to-day. Four cars, loaded with coal, belonging to the Dimmock Coal, belonging to tain from the conf-bank near the tep of the mountain (the grade is about 30 de-grees, and the distance a thousand feet or more) when they got away sust maked with fearful velocity over the steep track. They struck the coal-chute at the foot of the incline, and went through it as if it had been a bandbox. A frame house was next encountered, and was split into kindling-wood. A freight train, loaded with coal, was just then passing the point. It was struck midway, and seven "ars completely wrecked, the debris being leattered for quite a distance around, it cattered for quite a distance around. It took four or five hours to clear the track to that trains could pass. Fortunately, no the was in the track of the runaway about thirty-live eight years ago to over 350.

A prominent Republican of Portsmouth, while discussing the question of the filling of the vacancy in the position of State chairman of the party occasioned by the death of General William Mahone, said to-day that Colonel Lamb would certainly be elected to the place when the State Committee assembles on the 27th instant at Petersburg. Also, that the rumor circulated to the effect that he would not accept the chairmanship, except when tendered by the State convention, had raised such a storm of remonstrance that he would be compelled to yield to the prevailing sentiment and serve the party in that capacity. He further stated that in that capacity. He further stated that the report telegraphed from Richmond that Judge Waddill would be elected chairman with the intention of carrying the State delegation for McKinley had been viewed with dissatisfaction by those who viewed with dissatisfaction by those who were opposed to any factional fight in making the selection, and that the idea was to elect a man who would be un-prejudiced towards any of the candidates, and thus avoid unnecessary friction from doors of the building being so located that three cars can be loaded and unloaded at one time, and through its connection shipments can be made by any railroad

going out of Richmond without drayage.
This building was constructed with special reference to its being used in the meat business, and is admirably arranged for that purpose, both as to storing, packing, and smoking. It is massive and strongly built, and the ventilation is perfect, it being detached and with large, open spaces on all sides. It is provided with comfortable offices, elevator, scales,
and smoke-houses, it is adapted to any heavy business, and is close to railroad
centre. It is FOR RENT from January 1, 1885, Apply to JOHN A. COKE.
